OF PHILADELPHIA.

Charter

In the Court of Common Pleas No. 1 of Philadelphia County, of December Term, 1913,
No. 851.

To the Honorable the Judges of Said Court:—

The subscribers, all of whom are citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with their associates, having organized themselves into a society for the purpose hereinafter set forth, are desirous of becoming incorporated agreeably to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved the twenty-ninth day of April, A. D. 1874, and the supplements thereto, and to that end they do hereby declare, set forth and certify that the following are the purposes, objects, articles and conditions of their association agreeably to which they desire to be incorporated, viz.:

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The name of the corporation shall be "City History Society of Philadelphia."

ARTICLE II.

Purpose.

The corporation is formed for the purpose of promoting the study of history and tradition, especially the local history and traditions of the City and County of Philadelphia and vicinity, by the collection, preservation and publication of historical information, the delivery of lectures, the establishment and maintenance of a library and museum, the preservation of buildings and other objects of historic interest, the visiting and marking of historic buildings and sites and by such other means as are proper and appropriate.

ARTICLE III.

Place of Business.

The business of the corporation is to be transacted in the City of Philadelphia.

ARTICLE IV.

Term of Existence.

The corporation is to exist perpetually.

ARTICLE V.

The City Historical Society of Philadelphia

Regular Monthly Meeting, Wednesday, October 14th, 1914, in the Lecture Room of the Normal School, Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

MR. HENRY S. BORNEMAN will deliver an address on "THE BIRDS OF PHILADELPHIA."

The Society, with sincere regret, announces the resignation of Miss Anna A. Gorges as Secretary. Her record as Secretary is as unusual as remarkable; for she was absent only fourteen times out of 147 meetings of the Society and Board of Directors.

HERMAN BURGIN, Secretary.

63 W. Cheltenham avenue, Germantown, Pa.

ARTICLE VI.

Directors.

The number of Directors shall not be less than nine nor more than twenty-five as shall be prescribed by the by-laws, one-third only of the Directors to be elected each year to serve for three years. The names and residences of those who are chosen Directors for the first year are:

Name.	Residence.
William A. Mason	Philadelphia
Jane Campbell	Philadelphia
J. E. Burnett Buckenham, M. D.....	Philadelphia
Edwin C. Jellett	Philadelphia

Corresponding Secretary—Helena E. Law,	Philadelphia
Treasurer—Stanley G. Child, M.E., B.S.E.E.,	Jenkintown, Pa.

ARTICLE VIII.

Capital Stock.

The corporation has no capital stock and is to be maintained by fees and dues from members and by gifts, bequests and devises and the income therefrom.

ARTICLE IX.

By-Laws.

The by-laws shall be adopted by the members of the corporation and shall not be inconsistent with the constitution or laws of the United States or the constitution or laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or with this charter. Said by-laws may provide for the admission of members, their suspension or expulsion and the manner of effecting the same and the mode or manner in which the property of said corporation shall be disposed of in case of a dissolution of said corporation or winding up of its affairs and any member upon expulsion shall forfeit all right which he may have to any of its property, real or personal.

Witness our hands and seals this first day of December, A. D. 1913.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,

COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA, ss:

Before me, the subscriber, a Notary Public of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the County of Philadelphia, personally appeared William J. Campbell, John P. Garber and William A. Mason, three of the subscribers to the foregoing certificate, who in due form of law acknowledged the same to be their act and deed for the purposes therein stated

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal the first day of December, A. D. 1913.

S. WARNIE SLACK,
Notary Public.

My commission expires March 25th, 1917.

GEORGE B. HAWKES,

DECREE.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA, ss:

And now, this 28th day of January, A. D. 1914, the foregoing Charter or Certificate of Incorporation of the CITY HISTORY SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA, duly acknowledged and certified, having been presented to me, the undersigned, a law judge of the said county, accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice of such application, I certify that I have perused and examined said instrument and that I find the same in proper form and within the purposes named in the first class specified in the second section of the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved the twenty-ninth day of April, A. D. 1874, and that the same appears lawful and not injurious to the community. It is, therefore, on motion of GEORGE B. HAWKES, ESQ., counsel for the petitioners, ordered and decreed that the said charter be and the same is hereby approved and that upon the recording of the said charter and of this order in the Office for Recording of Deeds in and for the county aforesaid, the subscribers thereto and their associates shall be a corporation for the purposes and upon the terms therein stated, and that the yearly income of said corporation, other than from real estate, shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars.

F. AMÉDÉE BREGY,
President Judge.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court the day and year last aforesaid.

JAMES W. FLETCHER,
Deputy Prothonotary.

Recorded in the Office for Recording of Deeds in and for the City and County of Philadelphia in Charter Book No. 49, Page No. 269, etc.

Witness my hand and seal of office this 29th day of January, A. D. 1914.

ERNEST L. TUSTIN,
Recorder of Deeds.

By Laws

ARTICLE I.

Membership.

SECTION 1. Any person in sympathy with the objects of the Society, as set forth in its charter of incorporation, may, upon written application, be elected an Active Member by a vote of the majority of the members present at any stated meeting of the Board of Directors, or special meeting called for the purpose: Provided, That such application shall have been previously submitted to the Membership Committee and a written report thereon presented to the Board.

SEC. 2. Any person whose services to the Society or to the world have been of distinguished merit may be elected an Honorary Member by unanimous vote of the members present at any stated meeting of the Board of Directors or special meeting called for the purpose.

An Honorary Member shall have all the privileges of an Active Member except voting and holding office, but shall not be subject to any annual dues.

ARTICLE II.

Dues and Suspension for Non-Payment Thereof.

SECTION 1. The annual dues of each active member shall be one dollar, payable in advance on the first day of January, the beginning of the fiscal year; but a member elected in July, August, September or October shall pay only one-half the annual dues for such fiscal year and a member elected in November or December shall not be charged dues for the fiscal year in which elected.

SEC. 2. A member who is in arrears in the payment of annual dues at the close of any fiscal year may be suspended by the Board of Directors from all privileges of membership until such arrears be paid; and if they be not paid within three months after the expiration of said fiscal year the Board of Directors may, after fifteen days' notice, suspend such member from membership. A member suspended for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by the Board of Directors upon paying all arrears up to the date of suspension and the dues in advance for the portion of the year in which the reinstatement occurs.

SEC. 3. Any active member, not in arrears for dues, who shall make a payment of fifteen dollars at one time shall be released from the payment of further annual dues and shall receive a certificate of life membership.

ARTICLE III.

Resignations and Expulsions.

SECTION 1. All resignations shall be in writing and shall be accepted if the member be not in arrears for dues.

SEC. 2. Any member who shall be accused in writing of conduct which is prejudicial to the interests of the Society shall be furnished with a copy of the charge and shall be given at least ten days' notice of the meeting of the Board of Directors, at which action thereon is intended, and may attend same with counsel. And if the Board of Directors, after a hearing, shall find such member guilty, it shall have power by a vote of two-thirds of the entire Board to expel such member from the Society: Provided, That such member shall have the right to appeal to the Society, by giving written notice of such intention to the Recording Secretary within ten days after notice of his expulsion shall have been mailed to him by the said Secretary.

ARTICLE IV.

Privileges of Members.

Every member, who is not in arrears for dues, shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings, lectures and excursions of the Society, and to receive without extra charge all publications issued for free distribution to the members during the period for which his dues have been paid.

New members, paying dues for only part of a year, shall be entitled only to such publications issued during the period for which payment is made, but by paying dues for the whole year shall be entitled to all such publications for that year, if any remain for such distribution.

Members whose dues are in arrears for six months shall not thereafter be entitled to receive publications until such dues are paid.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.

SECTION 1. A stated meeting of the Society shall be held on the evening of the second Wednesday of each month from October to May, both inclusive, at such place as the Society or Board of Directors shall, by resolution, prescribe.

SEC. 2. At the stated meetings the following shall be the order of business, which shall not be changed except by the consent of the members present:

Reading of minutes of last stated meeting and of intervening special meetings, if any.

Report of Board of Directors.

Report of Officers.

Reports of Standing Committees.

Deferred Business.

New Business.

Programme for Evening.

Nominations or Elections of Officers.

Further New Business.

Adjournment.

SEC. 3. Special meetings may be called by the Board of Directors or the President, and shall be called by the President at the written request of fifteen members in good standing. At such special meetings no business shall be transacted except that specified in the notice therefor.

SEC. 4. For the transaction of business at any meeting fifteen members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VI.

Officers

The officers of this corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, and nine Directors, which said fourteen officers shall constitute the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII.

Election of Officers.

SECTION 1. Election of officers shall be by ballot and shall be held regularly at the stated meeting of the Society in December, except as hereinafter provided. No person shall be eligible for election unless he shall have been nominated at the preceding stated meeting. The notices for the meeting in December shall contain a list of all nominees. In case all nominees for any office shall decline to accept the nomination or any nominee then in office shall die before the election, other nominations may be made on the evening of the election.

At elections for officers no ballot shall be received from any member who is in arrears for dues for the fiscal year preceding any such election.

SEC. 2. All the officers, except the Directors, shall be elected to serve for one year or until their successors shall be elected

SEC. 3. Three Directors shall be elected each year to serve for three years or until their successors shall be elected.

SEC. 4. The term of officers shall begin on the first day of January following their election.

ARTICLE VIII.

Duties of Officers.

SECTION 1. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Society and of the Board of Directors, and shall preside at all meetings of the same. He shall see that the provisions of the charter, by-laws, rules and regulations of the Society are obeyed by the officers, members and employees of the Society and all visitors to buildings or grounds under its control. He shall sign all instruments executed in the name of the corporation when duly authorized by vote of the Society or Board of Directors in accordance with the charter and by-laws. Unless it be otherwise provided by the by-laws or by the resolution authorizing their appointment, he shall appoint all committees of the Society or Board of Directors, and he shall be ex-officio a member thereof.

SEC. 2. In the absence of the President or his inability to act, the Vice President or a President pro tempore to be elected at a meeting of the Society or Board of Directors shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the President.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of the Society and of the Board of Directors and shall record and sign same in a book or books to be kept for the purpose. With the President, he shall attest all instruments executed in the name of the corporation. He shall have charge of the corporate seal, but shall use the same only under resolution of the Society or Board of Directors. He shall certify all acts and proceedings of the Society and of the Board of Directors. He shall issue notices for all stated and special meetings of the Society or Board of Directors, which shall state the time and place of each stated meeting and the time, place and object of each special meeting, and all notices for excursions of the Society, and shall perform such other duties as usually appertain to the office of a Secretary.

SEC. 4. The Assistant Secretary shall keep a list of the members arranged alphabetically with the several classes of membership indicated. He shall receive all fees and dues and keep an account of the same between the corporation and each member and shall without delay pay the whole amount received to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. As nearly as possible at the time of the meeting of the Society in January he shall present bills to all members whose dues are not paid. He shall direct and mail all notices issued by the Recording Secretary, and shall give to each member at least five days' notice of all stated meetings of the Society. He shall give to the Recording Secretary such assistance as may be required. He shall present to the Board of Directors a report at each stated meeting and at the stated meeting immediately preceding the meeting of the Society in January an annual report, such reports to be in such form as the Board of Directors may require, and the annual report shall be presented also to the Society. He shall receive for his services such compensation as the Board of Directors shall determine, or in lieu thereof the Board shall provide such clerical assistance as may be necessary.

The Board of Directors may require the Assistant Secretary to furnish to the Society for the faithful performance of his duty a bond in such form and amount and with security by such corporation as shall be approved by the Board of Directors and the cost of such security shall be paid by the Society.

SEC. 5 The Treasurer shall have charge of all title papers and all evidences of investments and shall keep same in such place of deposit as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. All moneys received by him shall immediately be deposited to the credit of the Society in such financial institutions as shall have been designated by the Board of Directors. No money shall be withdrawn from the general fund except by direction of the Society or Board of Directors upon an order or voucher-check specifying the purpose for which it is drawn, signed by the President and Recording Secretary and accepted by the Treasurer, payable at the place of deposit when properly endorsed, if presented within sixty days of the date of acceptance.

No money shall be withdrawn from any special fund except by direction of the Society or Board of Directors, and on an order issued by the President and Recording Secretary.

The Treasurer shall keep full and correct accounts in books belonging to the Society and shall present to the Board of Directors at each stated meeting a report thereof and at the meeting of the Board immediately preceding the meeting of the Society in January he shall present an annual report of his accounts and of the financial condition of the Society for the preceding fiscal year, which said report shall be presented also at the meeting of the Society in January. The reports shall be in such form and detail as shall be prescribed by or be satisfactory to the Board of Directors or Society.

For the faithful performance of his duties he shall give to the Society a bond in such form and amount and with security by such corporation as shall be approved by the Board of Directors and the cost of such security shall be paid by the Society.

ARTICLE IX.

Board of Directors.

SECTION 1. Subject to the provisions of the charter and by-laws and the directions of the Society the Board of Directors shall have general supervision and control over the work, policy and property of the Society. It shall have power to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the charter or by-laws, for its own government and the management of the affairs of the Society. Subject to the directions of the Society, the Board of Directors shall have power to appoint and remove a Librarian, a Historian, and other officials and to prescribe their powers and duties and to appoint or authorize the appointment of such employees as may be required, prescribe their duties and compensation and to discharge or authorize the discharge of such employees at its pleasure. It shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of the officers and members of the corporation, and at each stated meeting of the Society it shall make a report thereof, and at the meeting of the Society in January it shall present an annual report upon the condition of the Society.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors, by vote of a majority of the members present at a stated meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose, may declare vacant the place of any member of the Board who may have been absent from three consecutive stated meetings without having been excused.

It shall have power to accept resignations from the officers and to fill any vacancy in any office by a temporary appointment to continue until an election by the Society for the unexpired term.

SEC. 3. A stated meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held upon the Monday evening of the week preceding the week in which the stated meeting of the Society is to be held, unless the Board shall prescribe a different time.

SEC. 4. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, and shall be called upon the written request of three members of the Board, by the President, or, in his absence or inability to act, by the Vice President. At such meetings no business shall be transacted except that specified in the notice therefor.

SEC. 5. A quorum of the Board of Directors shall consist of a majority of the whole number of members of the Board.

ARTICLE X.

Standing Committees.

For the better management of the work of the Society there shall be Standing Committees, each consisting of three or more members, the chairman to be chosen from the Board of Directors. Subject to the directions of the Society or Board of Directors, the duties of these committees shall be as follows:

1. The Membership Committee shall endeavor to increase the membership of the Society and shall report in writing to the Board of Directors upon all applications for membership.

2. The Finance Committee shall audit the accounts of the Assistant Secretary and Treasurer annually, or oftener if deemed desirable, and shall report thereon annually. Subject to the direction of the Board of Directors it shall supervise the investment of all permanent funds. All investments shall be made in the corporate name of the Society.

3. The Photograph Committee shall collect photographs and other pictures of Philadelphia and its vicinity for preservation by the Society.

4. The Excursion Committee shall plan and supervise all excursions conducted under the auspices of the Society.

5. The Programme Committee shall provide for each stated meeting a programme of an instructive character in accordance with the corporate purpose of the Society. It shall obtain and select papers for presentation, such speakers or other persons to furnish the entertainment, and shall make such other arrangements as may be necessary.

6. The Publication Committee shall examine all papers submitted for publication and shall supervise the publication of those approved by the Board of Directors and ordered to be published.

ARTICLE XI.

Endowment Fund.

A permanent fund to be called the Endowment Fund, the principal of which shall never be diminished, shall be formed from all moneys received from life membership fees, or which may be appropriated for this purpose from the treasury of the Society, and all donations, grants, bequests and devises made to the corporation for the benefit of said fund.

Unless the Society shall determine to place the principal of this fund under the care of a trust company and one of the officers of the Society as co-trustees, it shall be under the control of the Board of Directors and shall be deposited in some designated financial institution or invested in bonds of the United States, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the City or School District of Philadelphia, or other municipality of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or in bonds secured by mortgages which are first liens upon real estate in Philadelphia. The income shall be paid into the treasury of the Society and may be used for current expenses.

ARTICLE XII.

Amendments.

Proposed amendments to these by-laws must be in writing, signed by not less than ten active members in good standing and submitted at a meeting of the Society. They shall then be considered by the Board of Directors, which shall report thereon to the Society. The proposed amendments or the purport thereof shall be printed with the notice for the meeting at which they are to be considered and no proposed amendment shall be acted upon finally until one month after its introduction.
